The Messrs Lowe's Selection of Dance Music, arranged for the Piano Forte

NOTICE.

As many of the Messrs. LOWE's Pupils may look for their own particular Dances in the following Selection, it may be proper to state that a very few of the long pieces of Opera Music, to which these Dances have been performed, would have filled a volume double the size, and would not have been so generally useful as that now offered. The airs have been arranged with the utmost care, and the Messrs. LOWE flatter themselves that the whole will give the wished-for satisfaction.

LES GALLOPADES.

Gallopades are social Dances, in which every one of the Company may join & leave off at pleasure; they are generally introduced at the end of an assembly or Ball, in order to give enjoyment to those who have had little or no opportunity of joining in the Quadrilles or Waltzes; the steps are easy, and the figures must not be so intricate, as to prevent the generality of the Company from joining. If well danced, the Gallopadés may properly be classed amongst the graceful dances. The body, especially in the chassez two abreast, must assume a bold military attitude which cannot fail to display the beauty of the human form. La Gallopade de la chasse is the best for a large party, as in it the different couples may choose their own figures, and change them when they think proper if they keep the circle. Other Gallopadés are danced in column like Country dances, and we have selected the following figures for our Pupils.

La Gallopade de la chaffe.

As performed round the room, all the couples following the first. And the Balloons in Gallopade & Trot may be done after each figure at pleasure.

ANDANTE.

A musical score for a Scottish song, 'O bonny lassie blink o'er the burn'. The score is written for voice and piano. It consists of five systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more complex, flowing pattern in the left hand.

O Bon-ny Las-sie blink o-ver the Burn, And gin your sheep wan-der; I'll gie them a turn, And

MY OWN BLUE BELL.

The Poetry by T. H. Bayly Esq^r..... The Music Composed by A. Lee.

ALLEGRO MODERATO.

My own Blue Bell! my pretty Blue Bell! I never will rove where Ro-ses dwell, My wings you view of your own bright hue, and Oh! never doubt that my heart's true Blue! And Oh! never doubt that my heart's true Blue!

Though oft I own I've foolishly flown To peep at each bud that was newly blown I now have done with folly and fun, for there's nothing like constancy under the sun My..... own Blue Bell! my pretty Blue Bell! I never will rove where

Ro... ses dwell, My

Ro... ses dwell, My wings you view of your own sweet hue, And Oh never doubt that my heart's true Blue! And Oh! never doubt that my heart's true Blue.

Some Belles are Blues in_voking the Muse, And talking of vast intel_lectual views, Their crow quills tip in the ink they dip And they prate with the lore of a learned lip; And they prate with the lore of a learned lip;

Blue Bells like these may be wise as they please But I love my Blue Bell that bends in the breeze; Pride passes her by but she charms my eye With a tint that resemble the cloudless sky My..... own Blue Bell my pretty Blue Bell I never will rove where

Cadence

Roses dwell, My

Roses dwell, My wings you view of your own sweet hue, And Oh never doubt that my heart's true Blue And Oh never doubt that my heart's true Blue.
